IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

NO one was very busy last week in a society way, but there was the average amount of amusement with the theater, a few social evenings and the delightful afternoons for driving. These autumn days are not surpassed in the world, and none enjoy them more than the young folks and the ladies who have opportunity for walking or driving out in the mellow sunshine or strolling under the bewitching influence of the glorious moon.

Miss Lucy S. Ellum gave a recital last Friday evening at the M. E. church which was a musical treat. Miss Ellum is one of the most skillful and thorough masters of the piano that has appeared in Anaconda, and her work was highly appreciated. The programme was a rendering of the classics such as is seldom heard in cities so far from the great music centers.

St. Mark's choir enjoyed a social and musical evening on Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill. The singers had a delightful time and are formulating a plan for making such evenings more frequent as beneficial to them musically and socially.

The Schubert Symphony club entertains an audience next Tuesday evening at the Christian church under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

The Order of Pendo announces its first annual ball to be given at the Lyceum on Friday night. W. J. Ashford, the new councillor, will deliver an address.

Cards were issued early in the week for the wedding of Joseph Walsh and Miss Cornelia Surprenant, which is to be celebrated at St. Paul's church on Oct. 29, at 11 o'clock. A reception is given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Surprenant from 11 to 2 o'clock. Immediately thereafter the newly wedded couple will leave for a short wedding journey. No two persons in society or out are better known than the bride and groom to be, and they have been kept busy receiving the congratulations of friends for many days.

J. B. Finley and Miss Lulu Spraker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Spraker, were married on Wednesday evening. They are now residing in the eastern part of the city in a pretty home owned by the groom.

L. W. Montrose and Miss Mary A. McParland were wedded on Thursday evening. Rev. Father Alcays officiating. The happy event was celebrated at the Lyceum hall by many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. VanGundy were guests in Anaconda Friday.

days with friends last week in this city.

E. A. Carleton and T. E. Collins of the democratic state ticket were in Anaconda Thursday.

C. M. Sawyer was confined to his home by serious illness, but is now out again on the streets.

Peter Hale was in Anaconda yesterday and it is quite likely will again make this his home.

J. J. Haggerty of Butte was in this city last Wednesday.

"Doc" Campbell and family were guests of friends in this city during the week.

Mrs. C. E. Hazlett, who has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury for several years, returned last week to Chicago.

IN BUTTE.

A quiet but notable marriage in Butte the past week was that of Miss May Talbot, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Talbot, to H. A. Neidenhofen. The bride is one of Butte's most estimable young ladies, while the groom is a well known and wide awake business man. The ceremony was performed by Father De Siere at high noon Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 501 West Galena street. Miss Maud Talbot, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Harry S. Tuttle as groomsmen. Many elegant presents were received. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were invited, including Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lynch, Silas King, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Rourke, Mr. and Mrs. Neidenhofen and spending their honeymoon in a trip to New York and other eastern cities.

The Catholic fair came to a very successful close Wednesday evening. The thanks of the managers of the fair have been tendered the merchants of the city and citizens generally for their assistance, and to the valuable services of the bands which did so much towards the success of the fair. More than to any one else the credit for the remarkable success of the fair is due to Mrs. Thomas Lavelle, who worked indefatigably. About $5,500 was cleared by the fair, and the work of enlarging the church has already begun. It will be completed probably by Dec. 1.

A very pleasant card party was that given by Mrs. Busch on Friday afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. Gravelle and Mrs. Hoston.

The Silver Bow Whist club met Friday evening with Mrs. J. W. Reed. The prizes were won by Thomas Lavelle and Mrs. John E. Davis. The club will meet next with Mrs. Walter Talant.

One of the largest as well as one of the most enjoyable card parties for a long time was that given yesterday by Mrs. John E. Davis and Mrs. A. J. Davis at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Davis.

This week promises to be a very gay one in social circles.

The Physical Culture club was entertained by Mrs. J. L. Holmes Wednesday afternoon. The literary programme consisted of selections from Anna M. Gilbraith, "Hygiene and Physical Beauty" by Mrs. J. L. Carroll and "The Merits of the Bicycle" by Mrs. Bruin; piano duet "Zampa" by Mrs. Pingel and Mrs. Holmes; waltz "Auf Wiedersehn" by Mrs. Pingel. Following was the novel amusement of a picture guess, introduced by the hostess. Mrs. Carroll was awarded the prize. Five o'clock tea was served. The tables were beautifully decorated in roses and carnations.

Harmony lodge No. 3, Daughters of Rebekah, gave an entertainment at their hall Thursday, the 22nd. The hall was packed by an appreciative audience. The following excellent programme was rendered:

Piano solo.....Miss Ida Stoner

Recitation.....Miss Annie Miles

Song.....Hocking Rock

Flowers Hornpipe.....Miss Maggie Kelly

Song.....Miss E. Thomas

by the committee. Dancing was then indulged in.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Lloyd entertained a party of young people at their home, four miles from the city, on Tuesday evening. High five was indulged in until a late hour, when the party of 12 couples took leave, returning by way of the Nine Mile canyon.

Miss Olita Hensley captured the ladies' first prize and George B. Dygett the gentlemen's prize. The booty prizes were taken by Miss Busch and Naph Lloyd. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. James R. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm, G. MacNevin, Miss Busch, Miss Maud Crippen, Miss Russell, Miss Eliza Russell, Miss Nellie Black, Miss Edith Black, Miss Dimple Blackiston, Miss Olita Hensley, Miss Ida Kennedy, Miss Pearl Royce, Miss Rueger, Miss Theo Russell, Miss Evans of Helena; Messrs. St. John's guild will meet Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Pingel, 516 West Granite.

The marriage of Percy B. Dixon and Miss Estella May Pooler took place at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 132 West Park street, on Tuesday. The bride is the young, beautiful and accomplished niece of Mrs. Dr. J. Calder. Percy B. Dixon is the son of Albert and Frances Dixon of Hamilton City, St. Johns, Canada. The spiritual marriage ceremony of the First Spiritual church was performed by Mrs. Dr. J. Calder. The bridesmaid was Miss Liddy Gill and the groomsmen Master George Pooler, the brother of the bride. A splendid wedding repast was served.

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Jane Jenny by her friends, at her home, No. 528 East Mercury street, on Tuesday evening. Music and games were the features of the evening. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. Those who attended were: The Misses Josie Mulville, Bessie Griffith, Mabel Zinn, Edith Davies, Mabel Ellis, Gertrude Pierce, Rebecca Grancy, Mrs. D. Kogdill, Violet Oswald, Mrs. McDonald, Helen Pierce, Mary Williams, Blanche Charette, Grace Tucker, Jane Jenny, Mary Crowley, Mrs. J. Jenny, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. D. Jenny and Messrs. On Wednesday evening Miss Maud McMillan was married to Will D. Shambarger at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan, No. 600 Colorado street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. J. Groenewald. The bride was attired in white silk, trimmed with chiffon and white ribbon, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Margaret McMillan was bridesmaid and Joseph Case was groomsmen. An elaborate wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Shambarger will be at home at No. 121 Arizona street after Nov. 1.

Another pretty wedding of Wednesday evening was that of Maud Lowry to Almond Hicks, which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knotwell, No. 21 Clear Grit terrace. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilder Nitting. The bride was attired in white silk, trimmed with lace and ribbons. Mr. and Mrs.

Hicks will reside at No. 23 Clear Grit terrace.

Isaac Davey of Centerville left yesterday on a trip to his old home in England. Mrs. John Noyes and Miss Ruth Noyes have returned from a trip to Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White have taken rooms at the Curtis block for the winter.

Mrs. P. A. Largey has returned from New York city.

Mrs. B. Wharton will arrive home to-day from St. Louis.

The Euchre club met last evening with Mrs. T. J. Murray.

The High School club gave a very enjoyable dance at Renshaw hall on Friday evening.

Mrs. C. R. Leonard and children returned yesterday from a three months' visit in Illinois and Indiana.
